GERMANS DISLODGED FROM TRENCHES.
 Petrograd, January 29.—The following communication from the Russian general staff was given out here tonight:

"During the day of January 29 (today) the situation in East Prussia and along the fronts on both banks of the Vistula were without material change. In the forests in the north of Pilsken and Gumbinnen (East Prussia) the conflict continues. In the region of Borjowin (Russian Poland) the German forces made repeated attacks. Our counter-attacks in this region resulted in the enemy being dislodged from their trenches by bayonet attacks. We captured several mitrailleurs.

"On the Gailien front at the Duka and Vysokov passes (in the Carpathians) our progress has been satisfactory in spite of determined resistance of the Austrians. In the region of Beskid pass, seeing the numerical superiority of the enemy's forces opposed them, our advance guards retired slightly to a previously established position. During the last three days on the aforesaid front we have captured more than 40 officers and 2,400 soldiers and also taken three cannon and ten mitrailleurs.

"In Bukovina there is nothing of importance to report."

EQUAL SUFFRAGE VOTED BY TENNESSEE SOJONS

If Next Legislature Approves and People Ratify, It Becomes Effective.

Nashville, Tenn., January 29.—The Tennessee legislature took a definite step toward equal suffrage today when the house of representatives adopted a resolution providing for an amendment to the state constitution giving votes to women. The resolution passed the senate yesterday by a vote of 25 to 2. The vote in the house today was 45 to 10. The resolution must be adopted by the next legislature and then carry in an election before the people before it becomes operative.

Local members of the Equal Suffrage league are jubilant at the action today.

In anticipation of the vote in the house many women were on hand, occupying seats on the floor or in the gallery. The house took a recess when the resolution was called up to hear Mrs. Guilford Dudley, of Nashville, president of the local league, and Mrs. Alex Scott, vice president of the Memphis league. Mrs. Dudley was allowed ten minutes to speak, but declared that she could speak for a million years and not exhaust the subject. The announcement of the result was received with loud applause.

Nov. 19, 1914.—"All my life, until about a year ago, I was troubled with itching and burning on my entire body, and I could hardly sleep. I used many treatments that were unsuccessful and did not give me any relief. I started using Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and they helped me wonderfully. I WAS RELIEVED AT ONCE, and after about two days applications I can say that I was free and cured of that awful disease. My skin now is as clear as my conscience."—(Signed) John Whitaker, Jr., R. F. Will Name Seven Doctors For Grady Staff Tonight

The Physicians' Club of Atlanta at its annual meeting last night at the New Kimball house, named a committee of three well-known doctors with power to select seven competent physicians to the board of trustees of the Grady hospital for election to the seven newly-created positions on the medical staff of the hospital.

The Physicians' club was recently organized chiefly to fight the alleged control of the Grady by the Atlanta Medical college. At a recent meeting of the trustees of Grady the hospital's medical staff was increased by seven to twenty-eight members, giving the physicians from the city-at-large equal representation with the medical college. The three doctors chosen on the committee last night are Dr. J. C. White, chairman, and Drs. Joseph H. Bradford and T. H. Hancock. Tonight they will select seven physicians to be recommended to the Grady trustees.

President Not Sustained By People Can't Be Very Dangerous, Declares Taft

Charlottesville, Va., January 29.—"There is little danger to the public from the tyranny of a reckless and despotic character of a president who is not sustained by the people," declared here tonight in an address which concluded a series he has been making at the University of Virginia. "The only support of a president, said, would almost certainly withdraw from a despotic president the sympathy of the country at large. A president in two years and its control over appropriations would paralyze the executive arm."

The only danger in the action of the executive under the present limitations and lack of limitations on his powers is when the majority in the legislative body respond with alacrity and sympathy to his will. This condition can probably never be long continued.

FOODSTUFFS TO GERMANY WON'T BE CONFISCATED

Washington, January 29.—Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador, today sent to the state department a note formally reiterating the verbal pledge he gave recently in regard to American foodstuffs to Germany. "It said: 'I now beg to state that the German government gives formal assurance that the majority of the foodstuffs imported from the United States will not be used by the military or the navy for naval purposes, and will not reach any combatant forces of the government. The German government guarantees that it will not interfere with the distribution of such foodstuffs by the American importers to the civilian population exclusively.'"

Lithia Springs, Ga., January 29.—(Special.)—The store of P. H. Winn, of Georgia knights of Pythias, was burglarized at this place. The burglar or burglars evidently knew their business, as they succeeded in breaking a Yale lock with a small rod not over one foot long. About twenty pairs of shoes were taken.

select seven physicians to be recommended to the Grady trustees. The main object of this committee is to select the most competent men, so that it cannot be said later that incompetent physicians from the city-at-large are serving on the medical staff.

There were in attendance at the meeting eighty-five of the city's best-known physicians. The club wishes it to be known that its committee will receive applications for recommendation from any physician in town, who is not at present a member of the faculty of the medical college.

Two physicians, two surgeons, two gynecologists and one eye, ear, nose and throat specialist will be added to the Grady medical staff on next Friday, the next meeting of the trustees.

Members of the Physicians' club are not restrained from applying to the Grady board of trustees for these places, if they are not recommended by the committee of the club.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 154

"Come Unto Me" Labeled Men

"They bound him with fetters of brass and he did grind in the prison house."—Judges 16:21.

Bill Sunday said to listening thousands:

"Thou shalt not kill."

"Somebody says—'We are all right, there, Bill. We haven't murdered anybody.' But, listen! There are other ways of killing besides sticking a dagger in somebody's heart, shooting his brains out, pounding his head to a pulp with a club or an axe. There are other ways of killing."

He might have said:

"For example, the blood of the man shot down before the door of a club in Atlanta, where he had been drinking and playing cards, is on the hands of the Councilmen who voted the permit to the club, is on the hands of the man who, by his vote, elected these Councilmen who caused this killing by licensing known violators of the law—Is on the hands of the citizens who tolerate these liquor-selling, law-defying clubs!"

The Philadelphia North American, commenting upon Sunday's sermon, quotes Edward Alsworth Ross, of the University of Wisconsin, saying:

"Modern sin takes its character from the mutualism of our time—

"Interdependence puts us, as it were, at one another's mercy—

"The essence of the wrongs that infest our articulated society is betrayal rather than aggression—

"The sinister opportunities presented in this webbed social life have been seized unhesitatingly, because such treasuries have not yet become infamous—

"The man who burglarizes with a 'rake off' instead of a jimmy, or scuttles his town instead of a ship, does not feel on his brow the brand of a malefactor. The shedder of blood, the oppressor of the widow and the fatherless, long ago became odious, but latter day treacheries fly no skull-and-cross-bones flag at the masthead—

"If there is blood-letting, the long range, tentacular nature of modern homicide eliminates all personal collision—

"Our iniquity is wireless, and we know not whose withers are wrung by it. The hurt passes into the vague mass, the public, and is there lost to view. Hence it does not take a Borgia to knead 'chalk and alum and plaster' into the loaf, seeing one cannot know who will eat the loaf or what gripe it will give him—

"The owner of rotten tenement houses, whose 'pull' enables him to ignore the orders of the health department, foredooms babies—

"Undiscerning, the people chastise the old sins, but spare the new—They do not see that 'boodling' is treason, that blackmail is piracy, that tax-dodging is larceny, that railroad discrimination is treachery, that factory labor of children is slavery—

"The child-beater is forever blasted in reputation, but the exploiter of child toil stands a pillar of society."

But people are beginning to see. These things are fast becoming infamous in men's sight, because they are beginning to understand "the mutualism," "the interdependence," and their joint responsibility.

We are beginning to understand. Before he was bound with fetters of brass and put to grinding corn for the enemies of God, Samson had shackled himself with the chains of sin, he had betrayed himself, and in betraying himself, had betrayed Israel and his fellow men.

Our own individual failures appall. And we begin to see our share in all.

The recent effort in our city to filch, under the guise of charity, from men their day of rest illustrates. An ordinance, in direct violation of the law of Georgia, has already been proposed to open certain stores upon that day. We share the guilt, if we let others steal from us God's gift to us, our day of rest, Sunday.

Again, this shame, this stain is ours—Consider it—

Our representatives in Council, elected by us, license a violator of the law to run a saloon for negroes in Decatur street. This week a bartender shot a negro there.

And now our County Commissioners are proposing, for economy's sake, to cage our convicts, whom we breed with our lawlessness, law-breaking saloons and locker clubs—to cage them in cages on wheels.

Men, have you ever seen one of these unspeakable things?

In menageries, restless jungle beasts prow back and forth, a hopeless walk, which now and then the giant cats vary by springing upon the shelves which line their cage, then down again to the floor, panting for the liberty of the wild—

This cage for beasts is palatial compared with these which already disgrace some of Georgia's Counties—cages where men made in the image of God, men in chains, look out not through straight bars such as confine the tiger or lion, but through bars which cross, recross, and cross—

Think of the Cross of Christ!

God grant that our County Commissioners refuse to take this backward step in handling the prisoners of Fulton County—Refuse to make us parties to this cruelty!

Georgia has suffered long enough from lawlessness and disregard for human life and sorrow.

Add not this to our disgrace!

Convicts are men, who have sinned. God calls them with you to repent.

Christ's word, "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden—" He spoke to all—He speaks to all who feel the weariness, the burden, the drag of the shackling chain of sin.

Brother—You are not a convict?

No. But you are a sinner in chains.

Hear Christ. Turn you.

"Turn ye. Turn ye from your evil ways. Why will you die?"

"Repent you, therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out—"

"Come unto Me."

Betray not yourself and your fellow man.

DREADFUL PAINS
GREAT SUFFERING

Was the Lot of This Lady Who Tells the Story of How She Recovered Her Health.

Dallas, N. C.—Mrs. Thomas Davis, of this place, says: "About two years ago, when I was eighteen years old, I was in a bad condition from womanly troubles. I fell off until I weighed not more than 45 lbs."

I suffered dreadful pains in my hips, sides and abdomen, for about 5 days out of every month.

I couldn't sleep at night, and the pains were so dreadful I couldn't lie down for the blood would seem to rush to my head.

I felt I must have some relief, for I seemed that the awful suffering would surely kill me.

I had read of what Cardui had done for others, and thought I would try it.

After the use of one bottle, the pains had entirely stopped and I was able to sleep.

After using four bottles, I was a well woman. I was regular. I got back my flesh, and I now weigh 135 lbs; and am able to do all my work without any trouble.

I certainly recommend Cardui to suffering women, for I know it cured me.

My friends who saw me when I weighed 45 pounds and would see me now, would know what Cardui had done for me.

Try Cardui.

WATCH VACANT HOUSES,
HURGE REAL ESTATE MEN

Police Are Asked to Aid and Parents' Help Is Requested.

Real estate men and property owners have complained to the police of depredations and thefts of plumbing material in vacant houses in many sections of the city. They are urging a more careful lookout on the part of the police generally in an effort to put a stop to the losses sustained by the police.

Benjamin D. Watkins, a prominent real estate man, called on the police Friday to the repeated thefts of valuable plumbing material from vacant houses. He declared that hundreds of dollars worth of material have been removed from houses in various sections recently by thieves who have disposed of it to pawnshops and other places and that in some instances tramps have been in the habit of slipping into the houses at night and committing acts of vandalism and at times building fires.

"In other instances," said Mr. Watkins, "children are known to have gone into vacant houses and tear down the blinds and use them as ladders. They kick holes in the newly papered walls and otherwise destroy valuable property. I have in mind a house 31 Boulevard place, which some children virtually turned things to play with. We realize that men and owners who have money invested in property in all sections of Atlanta appeal to the parents of these children to keep their children out of the houses. And we appeal to the police to keep a sharp watch on tramps and others who make a habit of robbing houses in other ways, thus destroying property of value."

In his appeal to the police and to parents, Mr. Watkins has the support of many property owners, many of whom have suffered heavy financial losses as a result of these depredations.

Announcement was made yesterday that Atlanta had secured the annual meeting of the Atlanta Society of Dental Surgeons, to be held under the auspices of the Atlanta Society of Dental Surgeons, at the Hotel Hamilton in the Ansley hotel, in the assembly hall, in the city of Atlanta, Ga., on March 12 and 13 and last two days and nights. The program of the program, lectures will be given by three of the country's most noted dental authorities.
